Cocktails

Exquisite ingredients go into the beautiful, shockingly delicious cocktails that master bartenders craft these days. Here are select drinks that we believe embody the best of the best.

Metro Lafayette

The drink: The Pink Metro martini combines Hpnotiq, Hangar One Fraser River Raspberry vodka, lavender-infused syrup, and lemon juice in a sugar-rimmed martini glass.

Key ingredient: Lavender, a flavor usually reserved for bars of soap, adds complexity to the cocktail, without overpowering other flavors.

Why it's special: Crafted by award-winning mixologist and bar manager Luis Sivira, the drink is one of only two cocktails to appear on the ever-changing menu year-round, based on its drinkability and uniqueness.
